Harper hosts visiting artists' exhibits, student works and juried exhibitions throughout the year. All events are held in our Exhibition Space (Building C, Room C200) except as noted, and are free and open to the community. The exhibit is open Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m.–4:30 p.m.

MICHAEL PAJON: O BURY ME NOT! January 13–February 6

Salvaging bits of discarded life from matchbooks, children's books, postcards and calling cards, Michael Pajon creates images that piece together fragments of others' stories into his own story. He has exhibited his collages, drawings, and prints around the country. Originally from Chicago, Pajon attended the School of the Art Institute. He now lives and works in New Orleans. Learn more at michaelpajon.com.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 30:

Slide Lecture, 11:15 a.m. Painting Studio (Room C201)
Reception/Discussion with the Artist, 12:15 p.m.

JASON KAROLAK: NEW PAINTINGS February 17–March 13

Jason Karolak approaches painting in a sculptural manner. Rather than composing an image, he constructs a form on the canvas. Using line, color and light, his forms develop out of a structured yet organic process, resulting in complex objects that exist in dark borderless space. Karolak lives and works in Brooklyn, and exhibits his work nationally. Learn more at jasonkarolak.com.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26:

Slide Lecture, 11:15 a.m. Painting Studio (Room C201)

Highlighting the work of artists from across the country, this exhibit features a range of media, from traditional to contemporary printmaking and drawing. The Harper College Educational Foundation sponsors this exhibit.
